2025 PIANO MONSTER CONCERT PROGRAM

GINGER YANG HWALEK, a native of South Bend, Indiana, began piano studies at age four and has been involved in music ever since as performer, teacher, and conductor. She received piano performance degrees from Indiana University and Wichita State University, and a Doctorate in Music in piano chamber music and accompanying from Northwestern University. Her teachers have included Eugene Basabe, Robert Hamilton, Sidney Foster, Hans Boepple and Robert Weirich. Dr. Hwalek has taught at Illinois State University, Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp (Michigan) and the University of Maine. She has now retired from university teaching but still maintains a small studio of students. This is her eleventh appearance at the BBVMTA Monster Concert.

Dr. Hwalek has been actively involved in Music Teachers National Association for many years and has served in several capacities including Director of Eastern Division, member of the National Board of Directors, and MTNA Senior Performance Competitions Coordinator. In 2006, she was recognized as Teacher of the Year by that organization and in 2013, she was recognized as a MTNA Foundation Fellow for outstanding contributions to music education. Dr. Hwalek resides in Bangor, ME with her husband, John, a retired professor in chemical engineering at UM.
